Winnipeg's Parks and Heritage Homes

Join us in this two-part series with historian and Heritage Winnipeg President, Greg Agnew .

In Part 1, we will explore the history of the city's parks, who pushed for their creations, and for what purpose? Let's explore this fascinating history.

In Part 2, the focus will be on the homes of the rich and powerful that were built during the boom years of Winnipeg and have since become part of the city's precious architectural and historic heritage. Who actually lived in them and how are they remarkable to this day?

Millennium Library, Carol Shields Auditorium
251 Donald Street

Part 1
October 20: 6:30-7:30 p.m.

Part 2
November 10: 6:30-7:30 p.m.

This event takes place both in-person and online.

As the current President of Heritage Winnipeg, Greg Agnew has spent the past two decades making presentations, advocating to save heritage at risk, volunteering behind the scenes, and guiding tours for Heritage Winnipeg's Door's Open Winnipeg.
