

Introduction to Foraging in Manitoba

Join Wendy Pearce and discover how to find foraging grounds in Manitoba! You'll be introduced to a wide variety of wild plants that can be foraged and acquaint yourself with the products you can make from them. Learn about picking etiquette and harvesting ethics and legalities.

Wendy is the author of the upcoming chronological foraging guide to southern Manitoba titled Foraging For A Meaningful Life. Wendy conducts guided foraging tours in rural Manitoba and hosts make and take workshops.

Munroe Library

489 London St.

Monday, June 10: 6:30-7:30 p.m.

St. James-Assiniboia Library

1910 Portage Ave.

Friday, June 21: 2-3 p.m.

Free. To register, scan the QR code, or visit winnipeg.ca/library