

Speaking Crow

Polish up your new poems for your 3 minutes of fame at the open mic! Speaking Crow is a space that values diversity, creativity, and encouragement. Whether you do spoken word or page poetry, whether you've published widely or just started writing, we can't wait to hear your poems. There will be an open mic sign up sheet when you arrive.

Featured reader: Jane Munro

Jane Munro is a Canadian poet, writer, and educator. Her newest collection of poetry is False Creek (Harbour Publishing, 2022). She has taught Creative Writing at several universities, given many writing workshops, and read to audiences across the world.

Millennium Library, 251 Donald St.
Carol Shields Auditorium
Saturday, June 1: 1-3 p.m.

Free. Drop in. For more information, scan the QR or visit winnipeg.ca/library

