HERE'S WHAT TO DO

The Writer-in-Residence provides online and in-person consultation with new, emerging, and established writers of all genres from an office in Millennium Library.

Submit your Manuscript

Include a cover letter with a brief description of your writing background and any specific feedback you would like, as well as all contact information including an email address.

Manuscripts must follow strict submission guidelines: typed in 12-point font, on one side of the page only (prose -- double-spaced, not exceeding 15 pages, poetry -- single-spaced, not exceeding six poems).

From October 2, 2017 to March 16, 2018, manuscripts for review can be emailed to wpl.writerinres@gmail.com or a copy can be dropped off at the Reader Services desk at Millennium Library or mailed to: Writer-in-Residence, Reader Services, 251 Donald Street, Winnipeg, MB R3C 3P5.

* Paper submissions must be copies as they will not be returned.

Jennifer will contact writers directly.

The Writer-in-Residence service is free.

Jennifer is the 28th Writer-in-Residence at the Winnipeg Public Library. An award-winning poet, Jennifer has served as a mentor to many emerging writers as the Writer-in-Residence at the University of Manitoba's Centre for Creative Writing and Oral Culture and at The University of Winnipeg. She is an editor for Canada's longest running poetry journal, CV2.

The Writer-in-Residence program is co-sponsored by the Winnipeg Public Library Board, the Friends of the Winnipeg Public Library, the City of Winnipeg, and Manitoba Culture, Heritage and Tourism. For more information, please call 204-986-2802.
