From the Manager

I've had a few conversations recently about the nature and use of public library space. Last month, one of the parents I coach youth basketball with told me he visited Millennium Library for the first time after a network outage at his workplace. He brought his laptop computer, plugged in and connected to WiFi, and set up a temporary office in one of the carrels along the grand staircase. He really enjoyed discovering this potential office space away from the office. At a recent Library Board meeting a local writer who was in attendance characterized the public library as a truly democratic space. This philosophy of the library as an open, welcoming place for the entire community informs our planning for programs, services and for our library building projects.

This 2012 article from the online edition of The Irish Times succinctly captures the concept of the public library as democratic space: "The true centres of our communities are public libraries, where everyone is equal and nobody moves you along." Read more at: www.irishtimes.com/opinion/the-last-truly-democratic-space-where-nobody-moves-you-along-1.524173

July: Jennifer Sanderson

Jennifer Sanderson is a Métis artist with a creative passion that acts as a healing force in her life. While completing her Bachelor of Science degree she used acrylic painting as a way to balance the rigidity of rules and logic with the freedom of creative expression. This colourful abstract exhibit is inspired by nature, light and local Aboriginal artists, but especially the gorgeous skies and the sense of wonder and joy they incite.

Exhibit: The Business of War

Canadian Businesses and the First World War

Presented by the Montréal-based organization The Canadian Centre for the Great War, this self-guided exhibit of information panels and artifacts explores the many roles businesses played in Canada during the First World War. The exhibit explores how businesses encouraged the recruitment of soldiers, supported the supply effort, and joined in patriotic efforts. The Business of War is made possible in part by funding from the Government of Canada.

August: Pauline Cameron, Fàilte Quilts

Fàilte is Scottish Gaelic for 'welcome'. Pauline Cameron believes quilts are welcoming and nurturing as well as decorative. She started quilting when she retired and spends a few hours on most days with a project. It takes many hours to complete a quilt, from choosing a design, colours, cutting the pieces and then sewing them together.

Exhibit: Art From The Attic

Charleswood Library will display some of the 2000 art pieces donated to the popular Art from the Attic sale, presented by Grands 'n' More, in aid of African grandmothers caring for their AIDS-orphaned grandchildren. The Art from the Attic sale will take place on Sunday, September 24 at Norwood Community Centre. Art can be donated through August. Learn how to donate at grandsnmore.com.

Pre-School Programs

Fall session registration date is Friday, September 8 at 10 am.

Register in person, by phone or online at winnipeg.ca/library.

Raise a Reader

Summer is an ideal time for young readers to strengthen literacy skills and enjoy the fun of reading. Reading every day, independently or together, can help reduce summer learning loss and prepare children to return to school ready to learn.

To make reading an activity of choice in your home, experts say to provide access to as many books as possible and let children choose what they want to read. The Library is here to help with thousands of titles to choose from, at the library or online at winnipeg.ca/library!

When kids register for the TD Summer Reading Club, they can:

- discover great books to read
- track their time spent reading and enter prize draws
- join in programs and special events

On the KIDS' page of the national website tdsummerreadingclub.ca participants can:

- connect and share with others across the country
- write jokes, stories and book reviews, and more!

Ways to Raise a Reader

- ✓ Make reading a part of your children's lives
- ✓ Read for fun, and let kids choose what to read
- ✓ Read anywhere, anytime, and anything
- ✓ Be a family of readers. Read together and read aloud
- ✓ Start young. It's never too early (or too late!) to read with your children
- ✓ Use your local library. Start by signing your child up for the 2017 TD Summer Reading Club!

Summer reading is for adults, too! Check out our Canada 150 "Read Trip" on page 8.

Our programs are free, fun and fabulous! Check out these recent special events:

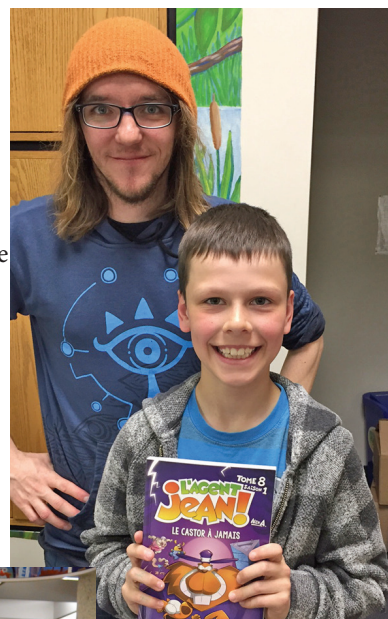

Quel plaisir à la Bibliothèque de Saint-Boniface et River Heights! Des étudiants ont participé à un atelier avec Marianne Dubuc pendant la Semaine canadienne TD du livre jeunesse. Regardez les illustrations qu'ils ont créées ensemble!

Students had a great time at the Saint-Boniface and River Heights Library with award-winning author and illustrator Marianne Dubuc during TD Canadian Children's Book Week. Check out the illustrations they created together!

Les fans d'Alex A., auteur de la série méga populaire Agent Jean, ont découvert le processus créatif de l'écriture d'une bande dessinée (et ont aussi créé un nouveau personnage!) lors de sa visite à la Bibliothèque Saint-Boniface le 9 mai.

Fans of Alex A., author of the mega popular series Agent Jean, learned about writing graphic novels and even got to create a new character when he visited the St. Boniface Library on May 9th.

In May we hosted Read by Queens at Millennium and West End Libraries. Nearly 300 children and adults enjoyed stories, crafts and games!

Your Account

Your library card number is also your account number.

Report lost or stolen cards to the library immediately. You are responsible for all activities on your card. Cardholders are responsible for lost or damaged items. See staff for details.

Log in to the Library Catalogue to see the items you have checked out, your requests and holds, and to pay your fines and fees online. Please provide us with your current phone number and email address. You are still responsible for holds, fees and overdue fines if the library cannot contact you.

Email and Notifications

Email has benefits! Ask staff to set your account to email notification instead of phone and we will send you a courtesy reminder 3 days before an item is due.

Requests / Holds

Can't find what you're looking for? Title already checked out? A request puts you on a waiting list for that item. You will be notified when the item is on hold for you and ready to pick up. Look for the Holds area in the library and check out the item at the staffed checkout counter or at the self-checkout stations.

You can place up to 50 requests at a time. Requests cannot be placed on: Reference, Local History Room, Express, Magazines and Preschool Packs.

Renewals

You can renew an item (borrow it for longer) when:

- Renewals are allowed on the item
- There are no requests
- You have not reached the maximum number of renewals allowed
- Your membership has not expired, and will not expire before the new due date
- Your unpaid balance is not over $15.

- If an item cannot be renewed, a message will tell you why and the current due date will remain. To avoid overdue fines, renew your items before midnight on the due date.

You can access your account and renew items by:

- Logging in to the Library Catalogue online at winnipeg.ca/library
- Through the Library's WPL To Go app
- Calling our TeleMessaging service at 204-986-4657 (in Winnipeg) or 1-866-826-4454 (outside Winnipeg, toll-free)
- Asking staff in any branch.

Note: Online and TeleMessaging renewals may not be available Mondays and Wednesdays from midnight to 9 am for scheduled maintenance.

Borrowing Limits

You can borrow up to 50 items at a time (see exceptions for Limited, VIP and Corporate card holders).

There are limits on how many items you can borrow from each of these collections. Borrow up to a maximum each of:

- Books and Magazines: 50
