

Celebrate Asian Heritage Month with author Linda Trinh

Linda Trinh is a Vietnamese Canadian author of fiction and non-fiction for children and adults. She explores identity, cultural background, and spirituality. Her first children's book series is the Nguyen Kids. Linda lives in Winnipeg with her family.

Fort Garry Library, 1360 Pembina Hwy.
Thursday, May 23: 10:30 - 11:30 a.m.

Thank you to the Asian Heritage Society of Manitoba and the Writer's Union of Canada for their support of this program.

Free, for Families. A class has been invited.
A limited number of drop-in spaces are available.

Call, visit winnipeg.ca/library or scan the QR code for more information.