

WINNIPEG PUBLIC LIBRARY WRITER-IN-RESIDENCE

OCTOBER 2023 - APRIL 2024

Susie Moloney

The Writer-in-Residence provides online consultation with new, emerging, and established writers of all genres from an office in the Millennium Library.

Submit your Manuscript

Include a cover letter with a brief description of your writing background and any specific feedback you would like, as well as all contact information including an email address.

Manuscripts must follow strict submission guidelines: typed in 12-point font; prose -- double-spaced, no more than 15 pages; poetry -- single-spaced, no more than six poems.

From October 2, 2023 to March 15, 2024, manuscripts for review can be emailed to wpl.writerinres@gmail.com or a copy can be dropped off at the Reader Services desk at the Millennium Library or mailed to:

Writer-in-Residence, Reader Services,
251 Donald Street, Winnipeg, MB R3C 3P5

* Printed submissions must be copies as they will not be returned.

Susie will contact writers directly to follow up.

The Writer-in-Residence service is free.

Susie Moloney has three decades of experience in writing and publishing and is an award-winning author of several novels, including the world bestselling A Dry Spell. In 2015, she branched out into film and television. Her first full-length feature film (Bright Hill Road) premiered in theatres in 2020, and a feature length production of ROMI just premiered on August 7 at the prestigious Fantasia Festival in Montreal.

Moloney continues to write narrative fiction and provide mentorship and guidance to writers in all genres. She served as the 2020 Writer-in-Residence at the Edmonton Public Library.

The Writer-in-Residence program is co-sponsored by the Winnipeg Public Library Board, the Friends of the Winnipeg Public Library, the City of Winnipeg, and Manitoba Sport, Culture and Heritage. For more information, visit winnipeg.ca/writerinres.
