Community Crisis Workers

Do you, or someone you know, need help accessing supports?

The Library’s Community Crisis Workers are available to help people access emergency shelter, housing and employment supports, social assistance, counselling, mental health and health care services, income tax filing, and more.

Find our Community Crisis Workers at the Millennium Library (all open hours), and at St. Boniface Library (Mondays: 1 - 4 p.m.). Drop-in may be available, but booking an appointment is encouraged. You can book online at winnipeg.ca/communityconnections.
