

Crossword 1 - Intermediate

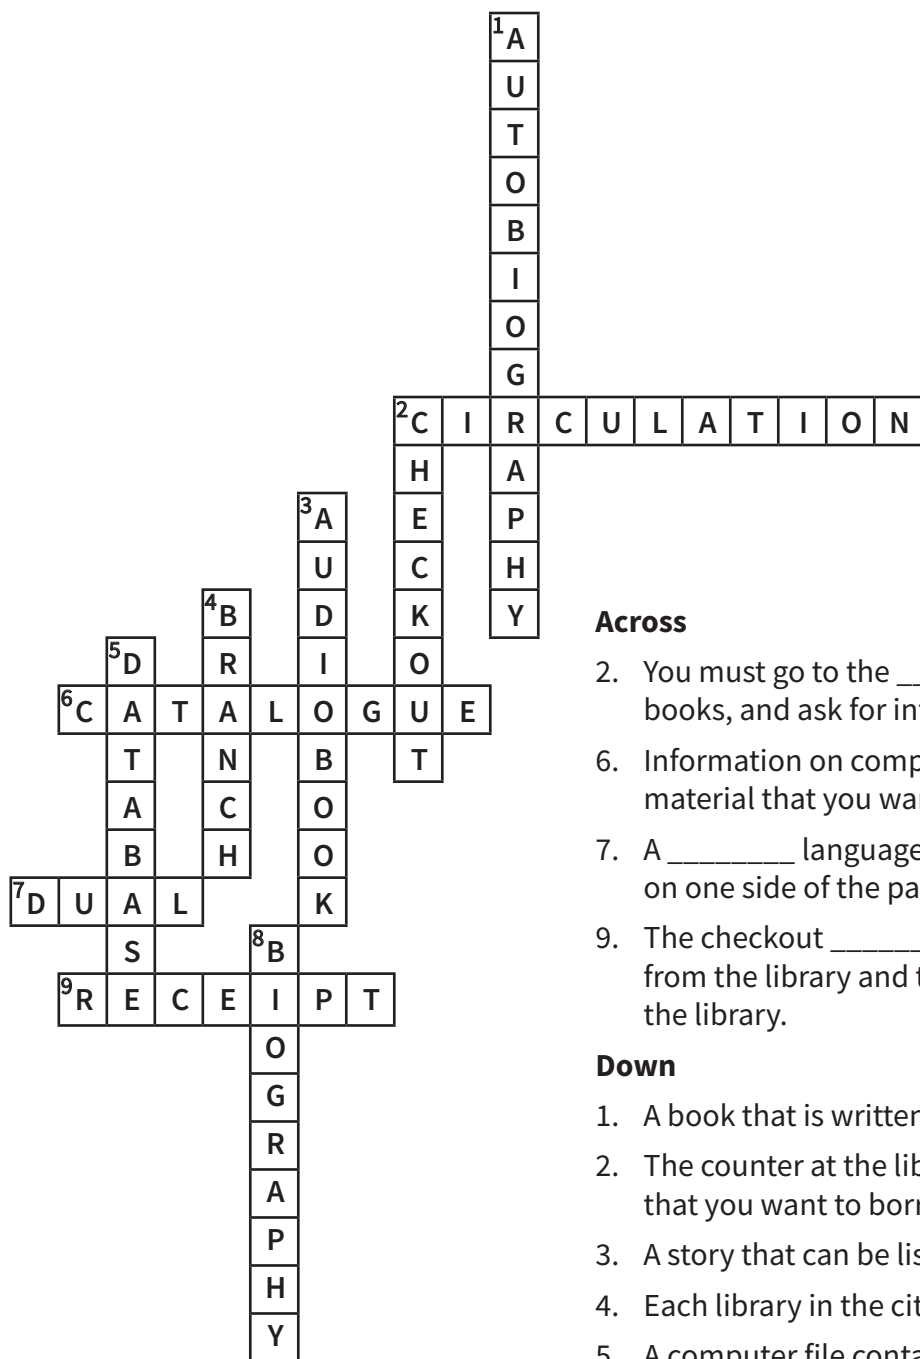

Across

2. You must go to the _____ desk to return books, take out books, and ask for information.
6. Information on computers in the library that tells you about the material that you want to borrow from the library.
7. A _____ language book is written in two languages: English on one side of the page and the second language on the other.
9. The checkout _____ lists the books that you have borrowed from the library and the date when they must be returned to the library.

Down

1. A book that is written by someone about his/her own life.
2. The counter at the library where you can take out the books that you want to borrow.
3. A story that can be listened to on CD.
4. Each library in the city is called a _____ of the library.
5. A computer file containing a collection of information that includes magazines, news articles, photos, etc.
8. A book that is written about the life of a famous person.

Crossword 1 - Intermediate - Solution

Across

- You must go to the _____ desk to return books, take out books, and ask for information.
- Information on computers in the library that tells you about the material that you want to borrow from the library.
- A _____ language book is written in two languages: English on one side of the page and the second language on the other.
- The checkout _____ lists the books that you have borrowed from the library and the date when they must be returned to the library.

Down

- A book that is written by someone about his/her own life.
- The counter at the library where you can take out the books that you want to borrow.
- A story that can be listened to on CD.
- Each library in the city is called a _____ of the library.
- A computer file containing a collection of information that includes magazines, news articles, photos, etc.
- A book that is written about the life of a famous person.