

Crossword 3 - Intermediate

Across

- 6. A computer file that contains a collection of information including items like magazines, news articles, and diagrams.
- 7. Information on computers in the library that tells you about the material that you want to borrow.
- 9. A movie that is on DVD.
- 11. A book such as a texttoook or a biography that contains true information.
- 13. A story that is not true.
- 14. A small book with a soft cover.

Down

- 1. A book that is written by a person about his or her own life.
- 2. The place on the outside of the library where you can return your books when the library is closed (two words).
- 3. Free courses or special events for children and adults that are available at the library.
- 4. The library's record of your name, address, the books you have borrowed, and any holds that you are waiting for.
- 5. A story that you can listen to on CD.
- 8. A book that is written about the life of a famous person.
- 10. The building that contains books and other material that you borrow and return.
- 12. The counter at the library where you can take out the books that you want to borrow.
- 15. A short form for English as a Second Language.

