

Crossword 4 - Intermediate

Across

2. Each library in the city is called a _____ of the library.
7. If you need a library book, but it has been taken out by someone else, you can place a _____ on that book.
12. _____ books are books written in languages other than English.
14. A _____ is a small book with a soft cover.
15. If you want to keep a library book longer than the due date, you can _____ it.
17. _____ books contain facts and information. They cannot be taken out of the library.

18. The checkout _____ lists all the books that you have borrowed from the library and the date when they must be returned.
19. When you return a book late, it is _____.

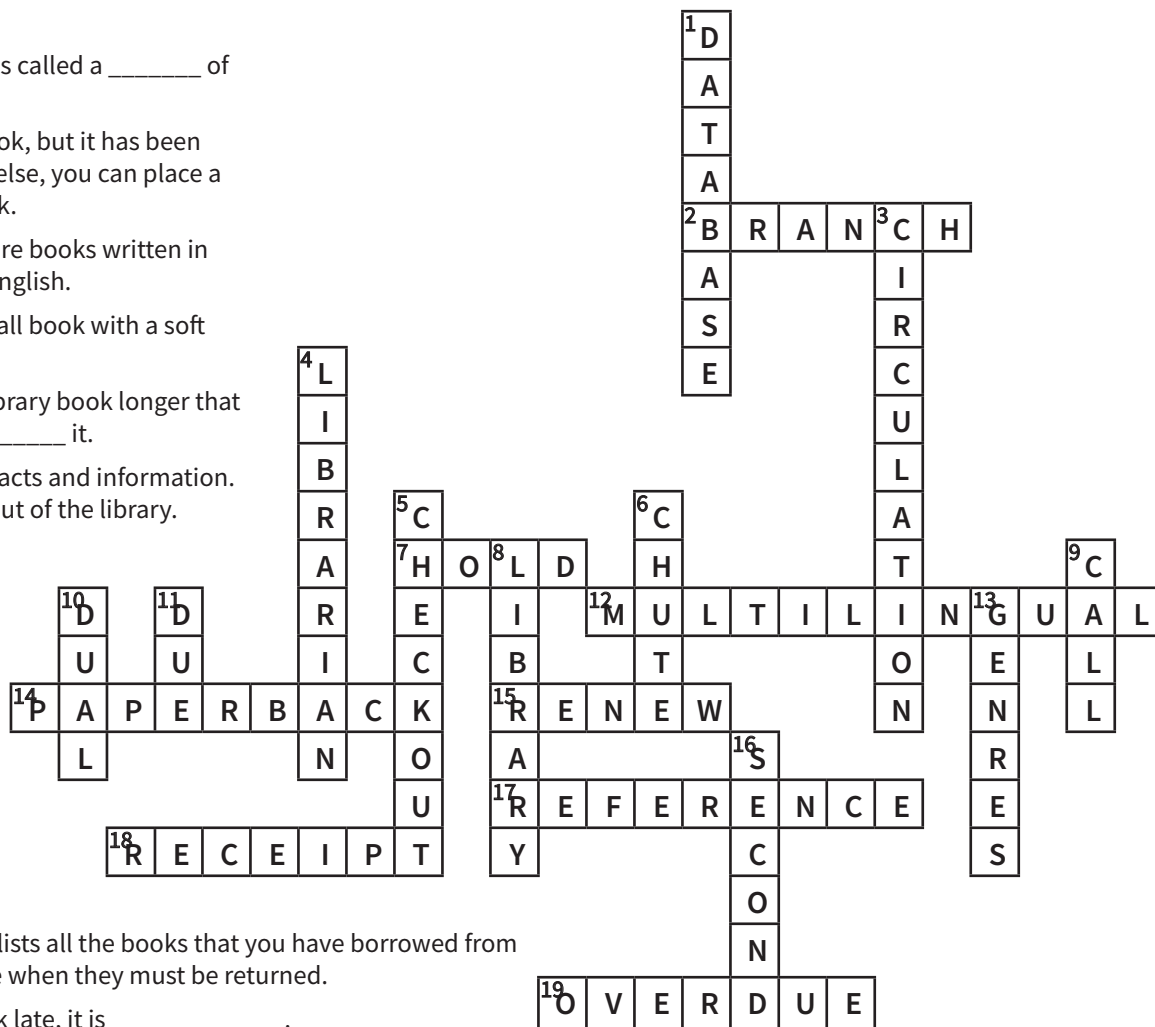

Down

1. A _____ is a computer file that contains information about items such as magazines, photos, and news articles.
3. When you need to return books, check out books, or ask for information, go to the _____ desk.
4. If you want help finding material in the library, just speak to a _____.
5. You can take out books that you want to borrow at the _____ counter of the library.
6. You can put your library books in the book _____ outside the library if the library is closed.
8. If you want to borrow items from the library, you must have a _____ card.
9. Every book has a _____ number on its spine to tell where it should be placed on the shelf.
10. A _____ language book has English on one side of the page and another language on the other side.
11. You have to return your library books by the _____ date.
13. There are many different _____ of books, such as mysteries, romances, and biographies.
16. ESL means English as a _____ Language.

Crossword 4 - Intermediate - Solution

Across

2. Each library in the city is called a _____ of the library.
7. If you need a library book, but it has been taken out by someone else, you can place a _____ on that book.
12. _____ books are books written in languages other than English.
14. A _____ is a small book with a soft cover.
15. If you want to keep a library book longer than the due date, you can _____ it.
17. _____ books contain facts and information. They cannot be taken out of the library.

18. The checkout _____ lists all the books that you have borrowed from the library and the date when they must be returned.
19. When you return a book late, it is _____.

Down

1. A _____ is a computer file that contains information about items such as magazines, photos, and news articles.
3. When you need to return books, check out books, or ask for information, go to the _____ desk.
4. If you want help finding material in the library, just speak to a _____.
5. You can take out books that you want to borrow at the _____ counter of the library.
6. You can put your library books in the book _____ outside the library if the library is closed.
8. If you want to borrow items from the library, you must have a _____ card.
9. Every book has a _____ number on its spine to tell where it should be placed on the shelf.
10. A _____ language book has English on one side of the page and another language on the other side.
11. You have to return your library books by the _____ date.
13. There are many different _____ of books, such as mysteries, romances, and biographies.
16. ESL means English as a _____ Language.