

Community Lecture Series

The Global World

The Winter Community Lecture Series is centered around the theme, The Global World, featuring discussions on topics of global significance. These include, but are not limited to, climate, politics, community, business, science, art, and history.

All events held at The Cornish Library and are free to the public.

Winter 2025 Season

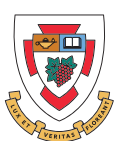

Curtis Pankratz | Sociology

Donald Trump, Global Imperialism, and the Wars in Gaza and Ukraine

February 12th | 12:00-1:00 p.m.

Especially since WWII, American foreign policies have been aimed at achieving global imperialist domination. Donald Trump's relatively erratic policies have threatened the consistency of that agenda. Using the examples of Ukraine and Gaza, this presentation examines how a Trump presidency could reshape global conflicts in some ways and not others.

THE UNIVERSITY OF WINNIPEG

Canada

Winnipeg

