

Finger Weaving a Red River Métis mini sash

Learn about the historical importance of the Métis sash to the Red River Métis, including its use, weaving styles, and meaning of the colors. Participants will learn to finger weave a small sash that can be used as a lanyard, bookmark, or bracelet. All supplies provided. This program will be presented in English.

Presented in partnership with the Louis Riel Institute.

Louis Riel Library
Monday, February 2
6-7:30 p.m.

Free. To register phone, visit a branch, scan the QR code, or visit winnipeg.ca/library

