

Callen Maude

Meet your Maker-in-Residence Summer 2025

Callen Maude (she/they) is a Winnipeg-based multimedia visual artist and art facilitator. Her work explores different mediums and processes and spans across textile, illustration, and sculptural works. Sustainability and inclusivity are two integral threads in her work. Her work as Maker-in-Residence will be in textiles, pencil and paint.

You can find out more about Callen's work at callenmaude.com.

Callen will be offering drop-in open studio times in the ideaMILL and running workshops at library branches throughout the city.
