

Silver Screen Matinee

Greenwich Village

Aspiring composer Kenneth Harvey moves to New York City's Greenwich Village, where he meets Danny O'Hara, a savvy club owner staging a new musical. Seeing Kenneth as an easy target, Danny plans to exploit him—but his star singer, Bonnie Watson, who's taken a liking to Kenneth, tries to shield him. Despite Bonnie's efforts, Kenneth becomes entangled in Danny's schemes—and in the pull of his own ambition. 82 min. Rated G. Free. Drop in.
