

TOP DOCS

Noteworthy documentaries to inspire, enlighten, and entertain

We Want the Funk!

A syncopated voyage through funk's history, from its African and jazz roots to James Brown's early work and the rise of Parliament Funkadelic. Distinctly urban, funk reflected a post-Civil Rights sensibility. The film explores the symbiotic relationship between funk's explosion and the political and racial dynamics of 1970s inner-city America. 82 min. Not Rated. Free. Drop in.

Millennium Library
Carol Shields Auditorium
Saturday, July 18 at 2 p.m.

winnipeg.ca/library

