

Community Lecture Series

The Global World

The Winter Community Lecture Series is centered around the theme, The Global World, featuring discussions on topics of global significance. These include, but are not limited to, climate, politics, community, business, science, art, and history.

All events held at The Cornish Library and are free to the public.

Winter 2025 Season

Melanie Racette-Campbell | Classics

Rome's Empire in its Ruins

March 27th | 6:00-7:00 p.m.

When we look at the ruins of ancient Rome, we can see them as a silent witness of Rome's long-past position in the centre of an empire. This lecture explores how the city still holds the traces of the wealth and resources that it absorbed through conquest and colonizing many centuries ago.