

REEL CANADA presents:

NATIONAL CANADIAN FILM DAY

canfilmday.ca #CanFilmDay

Universal Language

Set in an alternate universe where Canada's official languages are French and Persian, this charming and surreal fable follows a triptych of seemingly unrelated stories of people navigating through a bleak Winnipeg winter. Behind layers of eclectic bizarreness lives a poignant message about the depth and importance of human connection and understanding. It's also just genuinely hilarious. *89 min. Rated G. Free.
