

A colorful map of Eastern Europe and surrounding regions, including Norway, Denmark, Germany, Poland, Czech Republic, Slovakia, Hungary, Austria, Croatia, Russia, Belarus, Ukraine, Romania, Moldova, Turkey, and Cyprus. Major cities like Oslo, Stockholm, Moscow, Minsk, Kiev, Bucharest, and Ankara are marked. The Baltic Sea, Black Sea, and Azov Sea are also labeled.

Eastern European Genealogy for Beginners

Join Chris Bukoski for an introduction to the fundamentals of Eastern European genealogy, emphasizing how historical border changes, geography, and language differences shape the research process. Attendees will learn practical strategies for identifying their ancestral village, interpreting key documents, and taking the next steps once a place of origin is discovered.

Chris Bukoski is the Publications Chair and co-Internet Chair of the Eastern European Genealogy Society where she writes journal articles and presents on genealogy research topics.
