

Celebrating Indigenous Storytelling: A Canada Reads Event

Winnipeg Public Library
Charleswood Library | 6-4910 Roblin Blvd.
Sunday March 29: 2- 4 p.m. | Doors at 1:30 p.m.

CBC Books and the Winnipeg Public Library invite you to a special Canada Reads event in the lead-up to this year's show.

Elle-Máijá Tailfeathers and Billy-Ray Belcourt will join Rosanna Deerchild, host of CBC Unreserved, for a conversation that celebrates the different ways of telling Indigenous stories — from poetry and fiction to documentary and film — and the evolution of Indigenous storytelling.

The discussion will be followed by a chance to meet the panelists, have your book signed and win great prizes! Books will be available to purchase at the event.

This event will be recorded for broadcast on CBC.

Registration required through CBC eventbrite. Visit winnipeg.ca/library and the program and events calendar for further details. Drop-ins will be accommodated only if space remains available. This event is free.
