

Manitoba's Native Pollinators

Learn about the amazing diversity of Manitoba's native pollinators! Marika Olynyk of the Living Prairie Museum will discuss the importance of bees, butterflies, and other insects, and consider how we can provide habitat and conservation of these important insects.

Louis Riel Library

1168 Dakota St.

Monday, April 27: 6-7:30 p.m.

Free. To register, scan the QR code or visit, winnipeg.ca/library

