

Art Miki Author Visit

Celebrate Asian Heritage Month with author Art Miki and illustrator Geoff Miki. For children and their families. A class has been invited. A limited number of drop-in spaces are available. Call for more information.

Art Miki is a teacher, elementary school principal, citizenship judge and a human rights activist. He spent many years teaching people of all ages about the Japanese experience in Canada. As principal, he was inspired to help his students learn about and fight racism.

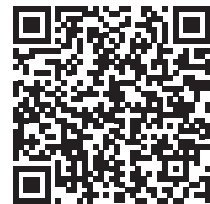

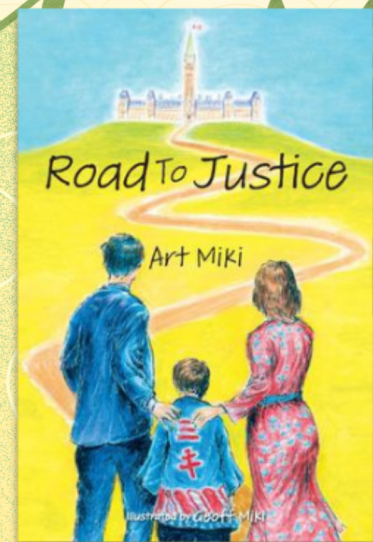

Geoff Miki is a Winnipeg artist focusing on drawing, painting and printmaking.
