

The Art of Bruce Head

Discover the bold, abstract world of Bruce Head, whose Modernist artwork graces the walls of St. Vital Library. Explore how his dynamic shapes, colours, and lines reflect the spirit of Modernism, a style shared by the library building. Join presenter Amy Karlinsky, curator of the 2008 Headspace retrospective at the Winnipeg Art Gallery, for an engaging look at Head's art, life, and lasting impact on Manitoba's cultural landscape. Presented in partnership with Winnipeg Public Art and Winnipeg Arts Council.

Amy Karlinsky is a life-long educator and lover of libraries. She has written extensively on the arts in Manitoba and has taught art and art history to students from nursery through university.
