

You're invited to join a Writing Circle led by Writer-in-Residence
Nora Decter

This writing group is an opportunity to share thoughtful critique and supports, learn writing resources, and to discuss your current work. This year's circle will focus on emerging writers who are newer to the craft. All genres of writing are welcome: fiction, non-fiction, poetry and other. Participants should be prepared to share their work in-person and engage with the work of their peers in a constructive manner.

For more information, visit

To apply, send an email with the following information to wpl.writerinres@gmail.com:

1. Your name, phone number or email address, and confirmation that you are available to participate for five months (December to April). Meetings will be from 6:00 to 7:30 p.m. on the second Wednesday of each month at Millennium Library, 251 Donald Street.
2. Include an attached sample of your work (max. 2 pages) as a PDF or Word document so we have an idea of where everyone is in their writing process.
3. Answer this question: What do you hope to get out of the writing circle?

The application deadline is November 22, 2024. Successful applicants will be notified by the end of November, and the first meeting will be Wednesday, December 11: 6:00-7:30 p.m.
