

You're invited to join a Writing Circle led by Writer-in-Residence

Sally Ito

This writing circle is an opportunity to share your writing with others. You are also expected to read, critique, edit and support your fellow writers. In addition to discussing your writing, you will also learn about writing resources available in the library and from the writing community in Winnipeg.

This year's circle is for emerging writers and the theme is SHORTS. Bring short pieces of writing to the circle (500-2500 words) in any genre to receive feedback from Sally and your fellow writers in a workshop setting.

Meetings will be held at 6pm on the first Thursday of the month starting December 3 at Millennium Library, 251 Donald Street.

To apply, send an email with the following information to wpl.writerinres@gmail.com:

1. Your name, phone number, email address and confirmation you are available to participate for five months (December to April).
2. Attach a sample of your work (max. 2 pages) as a pdf or Word document so we have an idea of where everyone is in their writing journey.
3. Answer this question: "What do you hope to get out of this circle and what unique perspective do you feel you bring to it?"

The application deadline is Friday, November 13 at 4 p.m. Successful applicants will be notified by late November.

For additional questions, please contact Kim Tuesday at Reader Services: 431-275-0567 / ktuesday@winnipeg.ca.

For more information, visit winnipeg.ca/writerinresidence

Winnipeg