

Maker-in-Residence Workshops

with Janet Murata

Janet Murata is a Japanese Canadian professional calligrapher who is highly skilled in origami and watercolour, with interests in sustainable sewing and upcycling natural fibres. Join her to develop your own skills with these creative workshops.

Introduction to Pointed Pen Calligraphy

Westwood Library

Saturday, November 23: 1-4 p.m.

Are you captivated by the elegant and sweeping letters seen on wedding invitations and in the Bridgerton TV series? Get introduced to copperplate calligraphy, and learn to use a pointed pen and ink to practice this centuries-old art form.

Watercolour Painting

Osborne Library

Monday, November 25: 5:45-7:45 p.m.

Learn about the art of watercolour painting with this introduction to the basic concepts and tools, and complete a small project during the workshop.

Art Deco Style Writing

Bill & Helen Norrie Library

Sunday, December 1: 1:30-4:30 p.m.

Use a dip pen and ink to create eye-catching letterforms to launch further practice and creating.

Registration opens three weeks before the program date. All supplies are provided for use during the workshop. To register, scan the QR code, phone, visit, or go online at winnipeg.ca/library

winnipeg.ca/makerinresidence