

Maker-in-Residence Workshops

with Tracy Charette Fehr

Tracy Charette Fehr is an interdisciplinary artist of Métis/Settler origins with a passion for story, family, and history. Her accomplished work is in textiles, embroidery, clay, paint, beading, and quillwork. Join her to learn how to express and depict your own experiences with these inspiring workshops.

Mindful Mandala Painting

West Kildonan Library

Thursday, November 14: 5:45-7:45 p.m.

Mandalas, or art-making in a circular form, are a universal approach to creativity, spirituality, and mindful awareness. Try your hand at this ancient, artistically and emotionally satisfying practice. Enjoy the chance to develop mindful awareness and create art at the same time.

What's in a Name?

St. James-Assiniboia Library

Saturday, November 16: 1-4 p.m.

Do you have a favourite person, elder, hero, heroine, or teacher/mentor? Whose name would you like to share with the world? Honour or celebrate a person you admire by creating a stitched textile in their name.

Run with Stitch

Cornish Library

Monday, November 25: 5:45-7:45 p.m.

Learn how to create a simple decorative embroidered and/or beaded piece on fabric with basic embroidery and beading stitches. Suitable for those comfortable using a needle and thread.

Registration opens three weeks before the program date. All supplies are provided for use during the workshop. To register, scan the QR code, phone, visit, or go online at winnipeg.ca/library
