

Prose Writing Circle

Are you looking to work on a writing project, practice techniques, and receive feedback from your peers? Apply to join a Writing Circle led by Writer-in-Residence Anna Leventhal. With a focus on writing prose in all genres (fiction, memoir, personal essay, etc.), participants will meet once a month via Zoom to share, discuss, and work on their writing projects, from December until the end of April (with the option to continue on after that if the group wishes). Participants should be prepared not only to share their work but to devote attention to the work of their peers in a respectful and constructive manner.

Send an email with the following to wpl.writerinres@gmail.com:

1. Your name, phone number and confirmation that you are able to participate for six months.
2. Include a sample of your work (max. 2 pages) so we have an idea of where everyone is in the writing process.
3. Answer these questions:
 1. What three qualities will you bring to this writing circle?
 2. What three things do you hope to get out of this writing circle

Space is limited. Participants will be notified by November 12 if they are accepted.

Thursday, November 18: 6-8 p.m.

Free. Visit winnipeg.ca/library to register.
