

Shivanya Ra

Meet your Maker-in-Residence Fall 2025

Shivanya Ra (she/they) is an emerging disabled visual artist, curator, and advocate for disability representation and accessibility. Her creative journey is rooted in a desire to make meaningful contributions through visual art, curated installations, and interactive elements.

Shivanya will be offering drop-in open studio times in the ideaMILL, as well as workshops at library branches throughout the city. Her work will focus on printmaking, drawing, collage, and painting. Her term will include weekly sensory-friendly drop-ins that are open to all.
