

Postcards from the World: An Urban Nature Writing Workshop

Join Writer-in-Residence Ariel Gordon for a writing workshop where participants will spend time with the flora/fauna/funga outside the Windsor Park Library. Through a series of creative writing exercises, we will focus on closely observing urban nature and write about what we see/hear/smell/taste. The workshop will conclude with some focused writing and discussion time in the library.

Attendees should wear appropriate footwear and clothing to spend time outdoors.
