

Sexual Harassment in the Workplace: Know Your Rights

All people have a right to feel safe at work, and employers have a responsibility to keep their employees safe. In this program, you will learn about the laws surrounding workplace sexual harassment, your rights in the workplace, and what to do if you encounter harassment at work.

Presented by Ashley Rees, on behalf of Community Legal Education Association.

This is a hybrid event. An online meeting link will be sent to all participants by email regardless of registration type.
