

THE STORY OF WINNIPEG

A CITY-WIDE COLLABORATIVE POEM

What is Winnipeg? What does it mean to you?

The Story of Winnipeg is an invitation to all Winnipeggers to share their lyrical and literal interpretations of our city. It's an opportunity to write your own unusual Winnipeg poem. Share your stories and ideas of what Winnipeg is, was, and might be. Your poems will be collected, read and shared as part of a city-wide mini-book installation led by Winnipeg Poet Laureate, Jennifer Still.

HOW TO PARTICIPATE

1. Take a map-book and fill in the blanks with words, drawings, alterations, additions, or....? This is your space to say what you like about our city! You can identify yourself, be anonymous, use a pseudonym—whatever you like.
2. "Mail" your book to Winnipeg's Poet Laureate by dropping it in the green mailbox at any branch of Winnipeg Public Library. Or, keep your poem for yourself and share as you wish.

By submitting your poem, you are giving permissions for its use.
