CHILDREN'S BOOKS ON

HUMAN RIGHTS

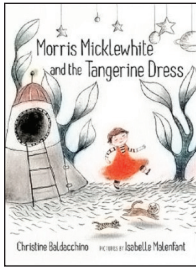

This list is a sample of the many resources available at the Library on the topic of human rights. These books can be used by parents, caregivers and educators to start conversations and to share with youth the many ways people are different; while equal in rights to every other human being.

Each title is followed by our suggestion of the human rights encompassed in the themes of the book. The list is not comprehensive, nor exhaustive. It serves as an introduction to learning about human rights - library staff are happy to help you find additional resources that are more in-depth and cover more specific topics.
