Author Spotlight

Allan Levine was born and raised in Winnipeg. His book Coming of Age: A History of the Jewish People of Manitoba won the McNally-Robinson Book of the Year and the Best History Book Award at the Canadian Jewish Book Awards in 2010, and was the co-winner of the J.I. Segal Prize in Canadian Jewish History.

Anne Dublin is a writer and editor living in Toronto. After teaching elementary school English and French for several years, Dublin began her writing career. She was won and been nominated for many awards.

Méria Cook is the award-winning author of the novels Once More with Feeling, The House on Sugarbush Road, which won the McNally

Robinson Book of the Year Award, and Nightwatching, which won the Margaret Laurence Award for Fiction. She has served as Writer in Residence at the University of Manitoba's Centre for Creative Writing and Oral Culture, and the Winnipeg Public Library.

Frieda Wishinsky is a Toronto-based writer and educator. Some of her other books include A Flower is a Friend and Jennifer Jones Won't Leave Me Alone, which won the Sheffield Children's Book Award, the Stockport Children's Book Award and the Portsmouth Children's Book Award. She also won the 2008 Marilyn Baillie Picture Book Award for her picture book Please, Louise!.
